How can sick and disabled clean up?

I HAVE to say that I disagree with the idea that everyone should clean up other people's litter plus look after their own pavement space outside their dwellings. What about the very sick people and the disabled who have trouble with walking, are they included? What about road sweepers and the handymen who clean all the council estates, they would soon become unemployed. What we do need is lots more litter bins everywhere, including outside shops and bigger fines for those that throw litter away, plus CCTV cameras outside all shops.

S.Reynolds, Blackheath

Oh, to value our green space

YESTERDAY we had an inspection for an award on Plumstead Common and, together with parks staff, we had several volunteers out litter-picking to ensure that everything looked spruce and cared for between the Slade Ponds and the Plumstead Common Nature Reserve. Today I had a site meeting about engagement of local schools in our green spaces and walked the same route. I managed to fill two large sacks with litter. That is in just 24 hours! As I was litter-picking I watched as one of a group of schoolgirls threw cellophane onto the grass. I stopped to pick it up and politely suggest that it might not be a good idea. First of all they naturally thought that this was my job, and I told them that I was a local resident that just can't bear to walk past the abundant litter in our streets and green spaces. I pointed out that the council spent vast and unnecessary funds paying people to pick up litter. They advanced with worrying conviction that it provided work for people who would be otherwise unemployed. My attempts to persuade them that those people could be better employed caring for, and maintaining, our environment in other ways fell on deaf ears. I would have liked to show them the paths that need repairing, the railings that need replacing, the park benches that need painting... so many things that the council no longer has the resources to manage. Huge sums of money are being spent on educating young people within yards of some of the finest green space in London. I dream of a day when they will be alive to its vulnerability and its value.

Nick Day, chair, Plumstead Common Environment Group
● We're sorry to hear about the fact you witnessed local school children dropping litter. We'll take it up with the school concerned and whilst the incident took place off school premises, we'll ask them to remind all their students that they should not drop litter. Ed

Time to defend GT?

ERIC Pickles is making it his life's work to either...completely bar councils from publishing a local free newspaper, or "make them" only publish quarterly. He is of the opinion that a local free paper is just political brainwashing. As a lifelong residents of Plumstead, I am asking everyone in the Royal Borough of Greenwich, who enjoys 'Greenwich Time' who uses the paper for local knowledge and gossip, to "defend GT". Concerns to do with parking, cemeteries and dangerous pavements raised by Greenwich residents have had a platform in Greenwich Time - and that was only in one edition. And as for the bleating of other 'local' papers, that advertising is lost to them, not so....they are specific local ads in GT and help pay for the paper.

Lorraine Savy, Plumstead

POOLSIDE PARTY: Cllr Peter Kotz, the cabinet member for culture and creative industries and GLL's MD Mark Sesan celebrate with local school pupils

Historic lido reopens after £2m facelift

CHARLTON'S historic Lido re-opened to the public last Monday (July 23) after a massive refurbishment.

The Art deco-style open-air pool in Hornfair Park, built in 1939, had been closed for many years while debates took place over its future. It is now managed by Greenwich Leisure Ltd, (GLL), which also runs leisure services and libraries on behalf of the Royal Borough of Greenwich.

The £2million refurbishment is being paid for by a 50-50 split between GLL and the royal borough and funding from the London Mayor and the London Marathon Trust. It's a key part of a £4million Olympic legacy to transform Hornfair Park into a multi-sports hub park.

A ceremony took place on Friday, (July 13), when it was declared officially open by the leader of the Royal Greenwich, Cllr Chris Roberts, and GLL's managing director Mark Sesan. The event featured the regional launch of the 'Get Safe 4 Summer' safety awareness event, involving local schoolchildren.

The Lido's refurbishment is being done in two phases. Phase one included the pool and plant room, and means that both refurbished pools are now heated. Phase two is due to be completed next year, and will see a health and fitness centre and a café. The lido is one of only three open air public pools left in south-east London.

Harry's open house!

THE Great Harry pub in Wellington Street, Woolwich, is open again, nearly a year after it was destroyed by fire in last August's riots.

It has been given a £1.3million rebuild by pub operators JD Wetherspoon – a move that created jobs for 60 people. Fifteen former members of staff have come back, and will be working for new pub manager Arber Hasani.

He said: "Myself and my team are once again looking forward to welcoming customers back into the pub. The Great Harry plays an important role in the Woolwich community, and I know that people are excited about the reopening of their pub."

The pub is named after The Great Harry, a Tudor warship that was built in Woolwich Dockyard in 1512. When launched it was the largest and most powerful in Europe.

A ribbon-cutting ceremony was carried out last Tuesday (July 10) by the Pearly King and Queen of Woolwich, Clive

RIBBONS AND PEARLS: The Great Harry's reopening ceremony is carried out by Pearly King and Queen, Clive Bennett and Gwen Jones and the pub's returning staff

Bennett and Gwen Jones. Photos, local history and information boards about the history and characters of the area, are on display inside. And new artwork is on show because the original pieces were destroyed in the fire.

They include a commissioned work by local artist Gary Drostle of Woolwich Market.

The pub is open from 7am until midnight Sunday to Thursday, and 7am until 1am Friday and Saturday. Food is served throughout the day until 10pm. The new pub specialises in real ales, including those from local and regional brewers.

Children, accompanied by an adult, are welcome in the pub until 9pm throughout the week. The pub is accessible to wheelchairs and has a specially-adapted toilet for people with disabilities.

Business as normal says QE Hospital

THE NHS Healthcare Trust which runs the Queen Elizabeth Hospital in Woolwich says its services will not be affected by Thursday's shock announcement that it is being put into administration because of massive debts.

Health Secretary Andrew Lansley has appointed a special administrator to take over the running of the Trust, saying: "Past efforts have not succeeded in putting the South London Healthcare Trust on a sustainable path."

It has run up huge deficits since being created in 2009 after three hospital were merged - the Princess Royal in Orpington, Queen Mary's in Sidcup and the Queen Elizabeth.

But within hours of the minister's announcement, the Trust said: "We would like to reassure local patients and the public that our staff will continue to provide first rate services as normal. There will be no impact on care and all scheduled appointments will continue as usual."

Royal Borough leader, Chris Roberts, had already written to the Health Secretary asking for reassurances on the safety of health services at the Queen Elizabeth. He said: "The Trust has stated that there will be no impact on local services, and that all planned treatments will be unaffected. We will maintain close dialogue with the Trust to secure this continuity."

OLYMPIC LEGACY

Determined Aishah wins job in Olympic Village

WINNING APPLICATION: support from GLLaB helped Aishah win her job

NON-STOP determination paid off for an Eltham woman who has secured a job in the heart of the Olympic Village helping to transport athletes to Games venues.

Aishah Harun, from Meadowside, had to go through three face-to-face interviews and another two by phone before being told she had got the job.

The 52-year-old was just one of two people chosen from 200 applicants.

"All the interviewers were very friendly, but it was very nerve-wracking," she told GT.

"I was asked questions about the history of the Olympics, and what I knew about Lord Coe. But I tried to stay calm and be myself."

Aishah will be leading a team of volunteers in the Olympic Village's transport department. Their job will be to put the athletes on the right buses, and to check bus arrivals and departures. She will be working shifts for 40 hours a week, with hours ranging from 8am to late at night.

Aishah who speaks three languages - English, Malaysian and Indonesian - has worked as an events co-ordinator after doing a similar job for Singapore Airlines.

She was helped to the position with support from Greenwich Local Labour and Business (GLLaB), the royal borough's employment and training service, which has been helping local people to clinch jobs connected with the London 2012 Games.

Aishah first registered with GLLaB in 2011 after being out of work for a year. She attended GLLaB's weekly Work Club at the Eltham Centre library. Through GLLaB she went on to complete a course at Ravensbourne called 'Setting Yourself Up As A Digital Freelancer'. She then went on a six-month work experience placement as part of GLLaB's Intermediate Labour Market (ILM) programme.

Aishah said: "I got a lot of help and advice from GLLaB, and it has helped me work on a winning application to secure a position with the London 2012 Olympics.

"I'm very excited about the job and at the same time I feel a bit overwhelmed about it. I've done two training days and there's two more to go. Teamwork and communications will be really critical in the job, as I have to give information to the volunteers. So it will be quite an experience."

Cllr Denise Hyland, the royal borough's cabinet member for regeneration, enterprise and skills, said: "I wish Aishah well in her job. She is among 3,000 local people who have got work as a result of Greenwich being an Olympic host borough. They are all playing a vital role in the staging of the Games and their involvement has gained them new skills, training and work experience."

Olympics traffic and transport - your weekly news

Games traffic travel plans

GREENWICH town centre's new temporary one-way system will be going live from Monday (July 23) with works to set it up starting at 8pm on Sunday.

It's part of a series of temporary changes to the royal borough's road routes to prepare for the thousands of athletes, officials and visitors who will be arriving for the Olympic and Paralympic Games.

In Greenwich town centre there will be a clockwise gyratory system using Greenwich High Road westbound only, Norman Road northbound only, Creek Road eastbound only and then using existing one-ways in College Approach, which will be reduced in width, King William Walk and Nelson Road. This one-way system will be in place until Monday until September 9.

Greenwich Church Street will be closed to traffic, and there will be no right turn for vehicles coming out of the side roads along Greenwich High Road, including Stockwell Street, Royal Hill, Greenwich South Street and Langdale Road.

Residents' parking spaces in the northern section of King William Walk and College Approach will be changed, and people are being advised about them. Access to the Cutty Sark Gardens car park will be via Welland Street, and signs are being put in place. Road closures are also now in place in Woolwich, affecting both Ha Ha Road and Repository Road. Buses are being diverted, and a new temporary bus service is running from Chislehurst through Eltham to access the Queen Elizabeth Hospital.

The temporary road changes have been drawn up by Games organisers LOCOG after taking account of feedback from residents and businesses. They were agreed by the royal borough after checking that they balanced local needs against the smooth running of the Games.

• To find out more about how roads and public transport will be affected, and how to get around more easily, go to the website GetAheadoftheGames.com so you can make alternative travel arrangements.

New one-way system in Greenwich town centre is in place from next week. Greenwich High Road westbound only until September 9

THE Olympic Flame will be arriving for its journey through the royal borough on Saturday (July 21), carried by a relay of torchbearers. Royal Greenwich is the first London Borough to welcome the torch. This will mean rolling road closures on the route of 10 to 15 minutes, which may affect residents and businesses. To check the route and the relay timings, go to www.royalgreenwich.gov.uk/torchrelay

Park is closed to all vehicles

MOST of Greenwich Park is now closed to vehicles, cyclists and pedestrians because of the London 2012 Games.

But visitors are still able to enjoy the flower garden and playground but through designated entrances. Vanbrugh Gate can be used to reach the flower garden, and Creed Place Gate for the playground. Both the garden and the playground will remain open during the Games, except on Monday, July 30, when the Olympic cross country event takes place. After that, they will open again, as will many other parts of the park. Posters giving all opening information have been on display on all the gates. But many needed to be replaced after they were defaced.

Most of the park closed on July 7 as preparations for the equestrian and modern pentathlon got underway. Seb Coe, chair of Games organisers LOCOG, said: "We have to close Greenwich Park to complete our preparations. With a lot of work happening we also need to keep the public safe. We take our responsibilities seriously and will protect the park and ensure it is returned to the Royal Parks in good condition. Greenwich Park will be one of the Games' most stunning venues and this will be part of Greenwich's unique history. We thank the residents of Greenwich for their understanding and support."

Construction work includes building a 21,000 spectator seat arena, stables, training areas, and a temporary platform for the arena on 3000 adjustable legs. More than 300 horses will be based there over the Games period.

• For further information on The Royal Parks and reinstatement plans for Greenwich Park go to royalparks.org.uk/london-2012. For more information about the London 2012 Games go to london2012.com/greenwichpark or call the helpline on 08000 722 110.

Parking permits replaced

RESTRICTED parking will begin in the royal borough from Friday next week (July 27) for the Olympic and Paralympic Games. More than 22,000 people have already applied for a games time parking permit, and many have already been sent out by Games organisers LOCOG.

But a printing error means some visitor parking permits may need to be replaced with new ones that give correct details about which controlled parking zones the permits are valid for.

Existing visitor parking vouchers within the areas involved will not be valid during the Games. Residents, businesses, and other people who might need parking permits for visitors, and who have not yet applied, should do so quickly via LOCOG's special website at www.2012gamesparkingpermits.com

People will be able to check their postcode to see if they live or work in a restricted parking area during Games Time and find out how to apply for a permit. Alternatively people can call the 'check it' line on 0300 111 2012.

Bus Numbers 178 and B16 Re-Routing Consultation

Transport for London (TfL) is proposing the re-routing of bus numbers 178 and B16 that run through Kidbrooke. A change in the road network will result in the permanent closure of the northern section of Tudway Road/Moorehead Way to accommodate the Kidbrooke Village development (formerly the Ferrier Estate). As such, the buses will no longer serve these roads. The buses will instead travel straight up and down Kidbrooke Park Road, continuing to serve Kidbrooke Station.

Proposals include the provision of additional bus stops on Kidbrooke Park Road, and there will be improved crossing facilities and new footpaths as part of the wider redevelopment of the area.

Consultation on these proposals commenced on the 21st June and will run for 5 weeks.

Residents and businesses who may be immediately impacted by the proposals will receive postal information directly from TfL. In Eltham West, this will include the remaining businesses on the Ferrier Estate, residents of the newly-built Phases 1 and 2A of Kidbrooke Village, residents of Meadowside and the adjacent Page Estate between Westhorne Avenue and Rochester Way, as well as those located in Eltham Green. The letter drop will also include the Middle Park and Sutcliffe areas of Casterbridge/Brocklands Estate, Weigall Road and the Courtlands Estate down to Eltham Road.

If you would like to find out more about the proposals, or wish to respond to the consultation, information can be found on the Transport for London website: <https://consultations.tfl.gov.uk/buses/kidbrooke>.

I. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Council of the Royal Borough of Greenwich, with the agreement of the London Borough of Lewisham, on 13th July 2012 made the above-mentioned Orders under sections 6, 45, 46, 49 and 124 et al and Part IV of Schedule 9 to the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 and section 14(4) of the London Olympic Games and Paralympic Games Act 2006. The Orders will come into operation on 27th July 2012.

2. The general effect of the Olympic Games and Paralympic Games Orders will be to give parking priority to residents and local businesses in all areas within the Royal Borough of Greenwich affected by the London 2012 Olympic and Paralympic Games (hereinafter referred to as "the Games") by discouraging spectators from parking in the vicinity of the venues being used for the Games. This will be achieved as follows:

(i) in the following Controlled Parking Zones (CPZ): Blackheath – Kidbrooke ("BK"), Blackheath – Lee ("BL"), Charlton ("C"), Deptford Green ("DG"), East Greenwich ("EG"), Elverson Road ("EV"), Greenwich Town Centre ("G"), Plumstead Station ("PL"), Westcombe Park ("W"), Woolwich Arsenal ("WA") and Woolwich Dockyard ("WD") during the period of 27th July to 9th September 2012 inclusive;

(ii) the operational hours of all on-street parking places, loading bays and waiting restrictions will be extended so that they will operate between 8:30am and 7:00pm on Mondays to Sundays inclusive (hereinafter called "Games Times"). Any parking places, loading bays or waiting restrictions that already commence earlier or finish later than Games Times (such as "Blue Badge" disabled person's parking places, car club bays, motorcycle bays, "at any time" waiting restrictions and certain free parking places) will continue to operate during these longer operational hours as normal;

(iii) CPZ residents and business permits will continue to be valid during Games Times. However, any resident in an affected CPZ who would normally be entitled to a resident's permit will be entitled to apply for up to two free Games Times CPZ Resident's Visitors' Permits. These visitors' permits will only be valid in CPZ permit-holders parking places in the CPZ for which they were issued. These visitors' permits will not be vehicle-specific and there will be no maximum period of stay for visitor permit-holders throughout Games Times;

(iv) during Games Times, all existing free parking places within each CPZ will be converted to shared-use parking places in which CPZ permit-holders and Games Times CPZ visitors' permit-holders will be able to park without time limit and with no restrictions on return. This change of use will also continue to apply at any free parking places during any existing hours of operation outside of Games Times, except at free parking places that operate at any time;

(v) during Games Times, the maximum stay period for non-permit holders at the shared-use parking places described in paragraph 2(a)(iv) above will become 2 hours with no return in 3 hours, EXCEPT at those free parking places with an existing maximum stay of 1 hour or less in the "BL", "C", "EG", "EV", "W", "WA" and "WD" CPZs which will retain their existing maximum stay and no return periods. Existing shared-use CPZ permit-holder / short-stay free parking places will also retain their existing maximum stay and no return periods;

(vi) except as described above, the clause of vehicles which can use the parking places within those CPZs, any charge for parking therein and all permit issue and use will remain the same as at present, albeit the hours of control will be extended and any pay and display or meter parking places will necessitate payment of the parking charge during these extended operational hours; and

(vii) certain exceptions to the above changes (by virtue of other made Orders) will be signed accordingly at their respective locations;

(b) during the period of 27th July to 9th September 2012 inclusive, five Event Day Parking Zones (EDZs) will be introduced in the roads referred to in the Schedule to this Notice:

(i) all existing on-street parking places, loading bays and waiting restrictions in the EDZs will continue to operate as normal but outside of those hours of operation and within Games Times these lengths of roads will be restricted to EDZ permit-holders or EDZ visitors' permit-holders without time limit or non-permit-holders for a maximum of 2 hours. However, where the difference between the existing operational hours and Games Time is 2 hours or less at either the start or the end of those existing operational hours, the operational hours of those existing on-street parking place, loading bays and waiting restrictions in the EDZs will be extended to Games Time wherever a difference of 2 hours or less occurs. Any parking places, loading bays or waiting restrictions that already commence earlier or finish later than Games Times (such as "Blue Badge" disabled person's parking places, car club bays, motorcycle bays, "at any time" waiting restrictions and certain free parking places) will continue to operate during these longer operational hours as normal;

(ii) during Games Times, uncontrolled lengths of roads will be restricted to EDZ permit-holders or EDZ visitors' permit-holders without time limit, or non-permit-holders for a maximum of 2 hours;

(iii) during Games Times, all existing free parking places within each EDZ will be converted to shared-use parking places in which EDZ permit-holders and EDZ visitors' permit-holders will be able to park without time limit and with no restrictions on return. This change of use will also continue to apply at any free parking places during any existing hours of operation outside of Games Times, except at free parking places that operate at any time;

(iv) during Games Times, the maximum stay period for non-permit holders at the shared-use parking places described in paragraph 2(b)(iii) above will become 2 hours, EXCEPT at those free parking places with an existing maximum stay of 1 hour or less which will retain their existing maximum stay and no return periods;

(v) each resident who lives in an EDZ will be:

(i) either granted or be eligible to apply for one EDZ Permit for each specified vehicle. These will be issued automatically to owners of vehicles registered to an address within a road referred to in the Schedule to this Notice. (Certain essential workers, doctors, medical practitioners and resident's carers will also be eligible for EDZ permits); and

(ii) eligible to apply for up to two EDZ Visitors' Permits (these will not be vehicle-specific).

(vi) each business user who carries out business in an EDZ will be either granted or be eligible to apply for ten EDZ Permits for ten specified vehicles. These will be issued automatically to vehicles registered to an address within a road referred to in the Schedule to this Notice;

(vii) all EDZ Permits and EDZ Visitor Permits will be specific to the EDZ for which they were issued and cannot be used in other EDZs;

(viii) all EDZ permits will be free of charge; and

[Note: (i) the permit system will operate either with a hard copy (paper or card) permit or by a "virtual" permit system where eligible vehicle registration numbers will be held by the Council on a "virtual permit" list of vehicles authorised to park in the EDZs; and (ii) vehicles displaying a valid disabled person's blue badge and motorcycles will be eligible to park in the EDZs without the requirement to display an EDZ permit.]

(ix) certain exceptions to the above changes (by virtue of other made Orders) will be signed accordingly at their respective locations; and

(c) during the period of 27th July to 9th September 2012 inclusive:

(i) in Beresford Street, Plumstead Road, Woolwich Church Street, Woolwich High Street and Woolwich Road, the days on which all parking places, loading bays and waiting restrictions operate will additionally include Sundays at the same times as they presently operate;

(ii) the hours of control of the entire length of single yellow line waiting restriction within the bus lane on the south-west side of Shooters Hill approaching the Academy Road / Well Hall Road junction will be extended to operate from 7:00am to 7:00pm throughout the week; and

(iii) provide two loading bays on the north side of Nelson Road, outside Nos. 2 to 4 and Nos. 5 to 11 Nelson Road which would operate at any time for a maximum stay of 1 hour, no return within 1 hour ("at any time" waiting restrictions would be imposed across the mouth of the alleyway between Nos. 4 and 5 Nelson Road).

3. For special occasions such as weddings or funerals the Council will have discretion to issue Special Permits which will grant certain parking dispensations;

4. The general effect of the Plumstead Station Area CPZ and Woolwich General Amendment Orders will be to correct minor drafting errors in their respective "parent" Orders;

5. The Orders and other documents giving more detailed particulars of the Orders are available for inspection during normal office hours until the end of six weeks from the date on which the Orders were made at the Directorate of Regeneration, Enterprise and Skills, Strategic Transportation, Royal Borough of Greenwich, The Woolwich Centre, 35 Wellington Street, SE10 8HQ;

6. If any person wishes to question the validity of the Orders or of any of the provisions contained therein on the grounds that they are not within the powers conferred by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, or that any requirement of that Act or of any instrument made under that Act has not been complied with, that person may, within six weeks from the date on which the Orders were made, apply for that purpose to the High Court.

N THE Greenwich Summer Festival is a programme of entertainment and cultural events which runs alongside the Olympic Games until August 12.

It's on at the Old Royal Naval College, and invites residents and visitors alike to enjoy music, comedy, art, film, food and drink.

There's Olympic coverage on a special big screen, and there are interactive workshops, and movie screenings.

Most of the events are free of charge and go on throughout the day. The programme is part of the Greenwich Festivals, the royal borough's season of summer events.

Two tents have been set up in the historic grounds to house some of the events – including the Greenwich Comedy Festival, which is on until the end of the week in the big top – and the new 'Little Top'.

The weekend of July 27 onwards kicks off with a celebration of the opening of the Games. The Hangar Arts Trust perform an aerial circus show, and burlesque troupe The Folly Mixtures will be strutting their stuff in the Little Top.

There will also be music on the bandstand, Voltini's Victorian Sideshow and an assortment of available bars, street food stalls and cafes.

Throughout the festival film buffs get the chance to re-live Hollywood classics on the big screen, with Singing in the Rain, Jurassic Park and The Goonies among the movies on after dark.

Live music includes a three-piece indie-electro pop group from France called We Were Evergreen, folk-singer Martin Carthy, and classical band Lighthouse.

Live band: The Counterfeit Beatles Sat Jul 21

AFTER a hard day's night music lovers can have a sit down and sing along with The Counterfeit Beatles, who are making a stop at Greenwich this weekend.

The band have been together since 2000 and have played some of their namesakes' tracks to audiences all over the world, from Japan to India and Malta to France.

They've even made TV and film stints, appearing on Richard Bacon's Beer and Pizza Show in 2011 and the group recently featured in a film by author and comedian Tony Hawks' Playing the Moldovans at Tennis, along with having one of their tracks featured at the beginning of the film. Liam Gallagher is among one of their A-list fans who once had the act perform for him at a Christmas party. The four-piece group made up of Peter, Dave, Reuben and Martin will play all the history-topping number ones the original Sixties band are most famous for.

Royal Borough of Greenwich's Choice Based Lettings Scheme

Edition 296

How the lettings policy works

Housing applicants are placed within 'Bands' according to the Royal Borough of Greenwich's policy for letting homes. Your band information is on the letter that the Council sent you when you registered, or when your circumstances changed. Property adverts say which band can apply and any other criteria. When all the bids are received, the property is then offered to: For properties advertised for band A and band B - the applicant who has had this priority status for the longest time. For properties advertised for band C applicants - the applicant who has been registered on the Council's list for the longest time.

BAND

- A is for applicants in unsatisfactory housing, including people moving due to demolition and those underoccupying their homes.
- B is for applicants the Royal Borough of Greenwich must prioritise according to the law, particularly homeless people, and others with an urgent need to move for medical or welfare reasons.
- C is for all applicants on the housing register, including those that are in priority bands A and B.

How do I apply?

Get on the list

First, you've got to be on the housing waiting list to join the scheme. If you're not, register an application online at www.royalgreenwich.gov.uk

Find your applicant number

It will be on the letter you've already had from the Royal Borough of Greenwich about the new scheme. You'll need that number and the reference number of the property you're after, which will be on the advert.

Pick out your ideal property

by looking in Greenwich Time or regularly checking the website:

www.royalgreenwich.gov.uk/homes

Click on your preference on the website. If you don't have a computer, you can always use one for free in either your neighbourhood housing office, library or UK Online centre.

Apply in one of two ways

- Phone the 24-hour hotline 020 8921 4340. It's an automatic push-button system and calls will be charged at the normal local rate, or
- Via the Royal Borough of Greenwich's website www.royalgreenwich.gov.uk/homes

GreenwichHomes

Royal Borough of Greenwich's Choice Based Lettings Scheme

Important Notice

Changes to the rents and tenancies of some advertised housing association properties.

Affordable Housing

Currently the rent level for the properties you see advertised in Greenwich Homes is significantly lower than full market rents in private sector housing.

From now you will now be seeing some housing association properties advertised for higher rents, up to eighty percent of the market rent. These rents will also include the service charge that you will need to pay for the property. We will use the phrase Affordable Housing on the adverts to help you identify these properties.

Please note the Council will continue to advertise all the homes it owns at the standard rent level.

You can bid for properties advertised as Affordable Housing in exactly the same way as for other advertised properties. If you are successful the housing association may want to check you have enough income to pay the higher rent, whether you are working or on benefits. If you are currently a housing association tenant the rent you pay on your present home will not be affected by this change.

Fixed term tenancies

You will also notice that the tenancies for Affordable Housing and some other housing association properties may now be for a shorter period than the present lifetime tenancies offered by housing associations. The phrase Fixed term tenancy will be used in the adverts to identify these properties. The tenancy details will be explained to you if you are successful when you view the property.

Please think about these changes when bidding for an Affordable housing property and make sure you can afford the home that you choose.

'Cluster' pupils storm to Games excellence

by Peter Cordwell

THE Olympic value of determination was everywhere to be seen at the Sutcliffe Park athletics track last Wednesday, (July 11) when 200 pupils from nine primary schools competed in their own mini Olympics.

A sudden thunderstorm sent everyone scurrying for cover but not for long, and play resumed for Cardwell primary school, Woolwich, to complete a remarkable hat-trick.

Winners of the small-sided football tournameant at The Valley and the Greenwich Sportathon at the RA Barracks, Cardwell - competing as France - finished first in the Year 6 competition, beating two Charlton Manor teams into second and third places Japan and Nigeria.

Charlton Manor also took silver as Ghana in the Year 5 competition behind St Mary Magdalene (Australia), with Fossdene (China) in third.

GT chatted to some early winners. Dwayne Morrison-Wright, of Charlton, was a clear winner in his "long leap" event. He said: "I really enjoyed that and I'm looking forward to the Olympics. I'm looking forward to the sprint with Usain Bolt. Sport's good because you work together and keep fit. You should always be happy, no matter where you finish in a race. It's important to try."

DETERMINATION: it's there in the faces as the boys compete in the hurdles race

"HOPE RETURNS TO HIS HOMELAND"

World Golf Hall of Fame Exhibit Showcases Entertainer's Keepsakes, Photos and Jokes

"ENGLAND WAS THE SCENE OF MY GREATEST APPEARANCE, I WAS BORN HERE!"

BOB AND DOLORES HOPE VISIT HIS CHILDHOOD HOME IN ELTHAM.

THE STORIES AND HUMOR OF BOB HOPE RETURN to his hometown during the latest stop of "Bob Hope: A World of Laughter", an extensive traveling exhibition that will be on display at the Greenwich Heritage Centre at Royal Artillery Square in Woolwich in the Royal Borough of Greenwich from 13 July – 28 October, 2012. Although Hope lived in the United States for most of his life, he was born on 29 May, 1903 in Eltham, England on 44 Craigtoun Rd.

"The Bob Hope family is absolutely thrilled to have Bob back on the 'road' to his hometown, especially at such an exciting time," said Linda Hope, daughter of the late entertainer. "Dad loved the Olympics and I am certain that he will be catching some of the action along with enjoying being 'home' again. He was born in Eltham and always looked forward to returning. The World Golf Hall of Fame has put together some amazing displays that illustrate his humor, his love of travel and his love of golf. I'm sure that this exhibition will be a fun experience for both young and old."

"Bob Hope: A World of Laughter" features more than 170 artifacts, including his KBE and CBE conferred on him by Queen Elizabeth II. The exhibition will also include Hope's honorary Oscar statuette, Honorary Veterans citation, Congressional Gold Medal and his PGA of America money clip. More than 200 vintage photos and several video displays tell the story about Hope's early years as part of an English immigrant family in the early 20th century, his rise as a star of stage, screen and radio, the relationships he had with the Royal Family and U.S. presidents, his devotion to the men and women of the military and his love of golf.

Additional artifacts that tell the story of his roots in England, including his returns to his homeland to entertain royalty and the public alike, his charitable endeavors through the Bob Hope British Classic, the story of Eltham's Bob Hope Theatre and his ties to the Olympic Games will be seen for the first time in this stop on the tour.

The exhibition's tour began in September 2011 at the Green Bay Packers Hall of Fame & Museum (Green Bay, WI) and just recently concluded an engagement at the President Gerald R. Ford Library & Museum (Grand Rapids, MI) in June. The tour will continue to other museums and institutions, including the National World War II Museum (New Orleans, LA) in Summer 2013.

THE HOPE ROAD SHOW BEGINS

Over the last 10 years, the World Golf Hall of Fame in St. Augustine, FL has developed special exhibits paying tribute to such noted Hall of Famers as Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus, Bobby Jones, and Gary Player. In 2006, the Hall approached the Bob Hope family about developing a special exhibit and in 2008 received permission from them to launch the project. Given unprecedented access to the collection, the team received this direction from Linda Hope, Bob and Dolores Hope's daughter – it had to have a lot of video and it had to be funny.

From the start, it was clear that telling the story of someone who had achieved so much and had lived 100 years was going to be a challenge. Fortunately, Hope himself began the practice of saving items associated with his entertainment career and through the years, the collection grew to include awards from Oscars to his 55 honorary degrees, gifts from fans, costumes, clothing, golf equipment, personal letters from celebrity friends, world leaders and servicemen – more than 10,000 in all. Hope's collection of hundreds of hours of footage including home movies and footage from his television shows were all available for review. In addition, Hope's staff had carefully collected his joke sheets and filed more than 60,000 photos from original sepia photos of the family from the 1900s to studio photos from the more than 70 films he made during his life.

HOPE'S CBE GIVEN BY THE QUEEN

During 2008, the museum staff conducted research, recommended storylines and prepared to take stewardship of more than 400 hundred artifacts ranging from original vaudeville contracts to mementos from several U.S. Presidents, Emmy awards and of course, golf bags and shoes that had been stored in the Hope's family collection in California. Several trips to the Hope office in Toluca Lake were needed to go through the vault of photos, which have been donated to the Library of Congress in Washington D.C.

Great effort was made to put as many stories as possible in Hope's own humorous words and to add jokes throughout the experience. The "first person comedy" perspective has provided an enjoyable experience for the several hundred thousand visitors that have viewed the exhibit which opened under the title of "Bob Hope: Shanks for the Memory" when it opened at the Hall in November 2008.

"This exhibit gave us the golden opportunity to build out a tribute to an international entertainment icon, who by the way, was 100% addicted to golf," said Jack Peter, the Hall's Chief Operating Officer. In addition to his love of golf, the exhibit also included the storylines that are included in "Bob Hope: A World of Laughter" sharing tales of his developing show business career, his family's arrival in the United States and what the men and women of the military meant to him.

Due to its great success, the exhibit was transformed into a traveling exhibit 2010 in order to share Hope's legacy with even more young people and Bob Hope fans in the United States and around the world.

The traveling exhibit is intended to make stops over the next 4 years as Hope continues to make people laugh around the world.

BOB HOPE'S BRITISH GOLF LEGACY

"Entertainment is just my hobby. I use it to pay my greens fees. Golf is my true profession."

Bob Hope was renowned as a comedian with impeccable comedic timing, an entertainer who performed for royalty, presidents and military personnel, and a passionate amateur golfer. Many golf fans may not know that he succeeded in lowering his handicap to four and qualified for the 1951 Amateur Championship at Royal Porthcawl, Wales. Hope had been determined to surpass the efforts of his friend Bing Crosby who competed in the previous year's event and was eliminated in the first round. His hopes were dashed by a Yorkshireman named C.C. Cox who bested the entertainer 2 and 1. Hope exclaimed dramatically to the gallery,

"My putting is bad – but my long game stinks."

World Golf Hall of Fame member William Campbell recalls. "I was at Porthcawl, Wales in 1951 when Bob and I were contestants in the British Amateur Championship. His golf game was off a bit, but he was the star of that memorable occasion. He was a superb performer and great humanitarian. It's a great tribute to him that the Royal Borough of Greenwich is hosting this special traveling exhibit this summer."

In the United States, Hope hosted a celebrity pro-am in Palm Springs, California called the Bob Hope Classic for many years which was highlighted by big name celebrities including movie stars, musicians, athletes and U.S. Presidents. Hubert Green, a member of the Hall said, "In the late 1970s, I was paired with Mr. Hope, President Ford and Clint Eastwood at Indian Wells. Our tour official told me to have my "amateurs" pick up when out of the hole to speed up play. I said, 'You want me to tell the President of our country, Bob Hope and Dirty Harry to pick up? I think not!' It's wonderful that this exhibit in tribute to Bob has made a stop in his home country. He'd be so proud."

For several years, Hope also hosted a celebrity studded European Tour event called the Bob Hope British Golf Classic from 1980-1983. Many professional golfers including Gary Player, Tony Jacklin, Bernhard

Langer and celebrities like President Gerald Ford and Sean Connery took part in the competition. The first year of the event held at R.A.C. Golf and Country Club in Epsom, Hope was paired with President Ford during the event but was on site to congratulate winner former caddie Jose Maria Canizares of Spain. In presenting the check for the purse of £18,333, Hope said "It cost me about that much in golf lessons this year."

Bernard Langer, who won the BHBC said, "Like so many others, I will always remember Bob for his wonderful smile and his endless efforts in promoting golf. Over the years, I had the good fortune to be able to play in the Bob Hope British Classic as well as his tournament in Palm Springs. One of my fondest memories of playing with Bob came in 1982 at the BHBC. Having won the tournament the year before, I was able to play with Bob and President Ford. I will always remember that round, and the fun we all had. Bob has done so much for the game of golf, but perhaps more than anything, he deserves credit for bringing the masses to the game. He is very deserving of having this special exhibit."

BOB & DOLORES HOPE

THE WOMAN BEHIND THE MAN

Bob and Dolores Hope were renowned for many things — together, they were part of a 69-year marriage.

They met in New York City while both were performing, Bob as a performer in vaudeville and on Broadway and Dolores as a supper club singer.

"I'll always remember my days in New York. They were great times. The show I remember best was Roberta. George Murphy, my co-star, invited me to go to the Vogue Club, a small classy night club. The singer's name was Dolores Reade and she was singing 'It's Only a Paper Moon'. It was love at first song...we were married in 1934."

She continued her singing career during the early years of their marriage, often appearing in Mr. Hope's vaudeville shows. After moving to Los Angeles in the late 1930s, she devoted her time to bringing up their four children. Later, Dolores accompanied her husband on his tours entertaining American armed forces overseas. On a Christmas tour during the Vietnam War, she sang "Silent Night" to the troops, bringing many to tears.

Bob and Dolores were both avid golfers and spent their first date drawing on napkins describing shots on their favorite golf holes.

Of Irish and Italian decent, Dolores and the family enjoyed a special Sunday routine.

"For as long as I can remember, Sunday at the Hope house has been a day filled with tradition," said Linda Hope. "The day always began with mass at St. Charles, our local Catholic church, followed by a wonderful brunch. Dad would take us all to Lakeside Golf Club to work off the extra calories. In those days there were no golf carts so we got a real workout. My brother Tony and I only played nine holes and were allowed to go home while Mother and Dad played another nine holes. By the time we returned home the house was filled with the smells of my grandmother's marinara sauce, which simmered on the stove all afternoon. We usually had dinner about six o'clock, which gave my mother time to make her famous antipasto salad. For your enjoyment, enjoy Mother's recipe for her antipasto salad."

Dolores Hope's Antipasto Salad

When the Hope children and grandchildren visit, the first meal we all look forward to sharing together is the Italian dinner.

1 head of iceberg lettuce, very cold & dry, broken into bite-size pieces
 Ripe olives, drained & chilled
 Pimento, drained & slivered
 Garbanzo beans, drained & chilled
 Genovese salami, cut in slivers
 Mozzarella cheese, small diced
 Italian peppers, mild pickled pepperoncini, drained
 Celery hearts and tops, chopped & cut very fine.

SALAD DRESSING: Vinegar - a good wine vinegar; oil, Sasso or Bertoli olive oil (approximately 3 parts oil to 1 part vinegar); salt and coarse ground pepper.

Arrange on bed of lettuce greens in chilled salad bowl and top with above ingredients (excluding dressing). Bring it to the table untossed to show off the colorful arrangement. Add salt, pepper and vinegar and toss lightly. Add oil and toss again. This can be served as a first course salad or even as a main dish. Serve with hot, crusty bread. Serves 8

FRIEND OF THE PALACE

"I left England when at the age of 4 I found out I couldn't be king."

However, Bob Hope continued to be proud of his British roots and had the good fortune to enjoy an ongoing friendship with the Royal Family throughout his adult life.

Hope and his wife Dolores were invited to attend the Royal Wedding in 1947. He performed in Royal Variety Performances at the Palladium Theatre in London in 1954, 1962, and 1967. In 1977, he was invited to be the host of the event which celebrated Her Majesty's Silver Jubilee. Items from those events including a box containing a piece of Queen Elizabeth's wedding cake and programs from the Palladium Theatre are included in the exhibit along with photos of Her Majesty, daughter Princess Anne and others.

One of the most memorable trips to England included a private meeting between the Queen, Mrs. Hope, and the royal Corgis. Both Her Majesty and the Hopes share a love of dogs and it is thought that was one of the topics they discussed.

Hope performed at the White House during a state dinner held by President Gerald Ford in honor of the Queen in 1976.

Among other noted items in the exhibit which pay tribute to this friendship are Hope's CBE, KBE and a handwritten note from Her Majesty thanking the Hopes for chocolates and flowers sent to her in 1979.
